RMR E-News April 7, 2018

Hello RMR Faithful!

April 7th was our last day of the 2017-18 Rocky Mountain Roosters season. Thank you all so much for the business and patronage!! We had an awesome season, shot a record number of birds and ended the season with a waiting list for membership! (We have not had a long waiting list since the crash of 2008-09)

The mild winter allowed us to hunt every day of the season and the cover is still AWESOME on the last day of the season!! Pray for rain this summer so we can have great cover again this coming year.

IT IS TIME TO LET THE BIRDS BREED AND LEAVE THEM ALONE. We are not allowing any scratch hunting. The season is over!! If you want to let your dogs swim, that is fine, but we are not running dogs in the hunting areas.

RMR IS CLOSED FOR ALL ACTIVITIES
APRIL 8- APRIL 16

The office and clubhouse are closed giving all of our staff -- including our star employees in the kennel--some much needed time off. We will open again April 17th.

SUMMER HOURS ARE TUESDAY THRU SATURDAY 8AM-5PM

A Nutty Professor says "eating meat creates a power hierarchy..."

A Pennsylvania State University sociology professor says that eating meat reinforces gender stereotypes.

In an interview with Fox News, Professor Anne DeLessio-Parson argues that "hegemonic masculinity implies an imperative to eat meat" and that eating meat establishes some kind of power hierarchy as well.

You think that's bad? Wait until you hear her suggestion about healthcare for animals . . .

Watch--

"I eat meat! I'm in control!!!"

ONE FOR THE ROAD

The guys were all at a deer camp. No one wanted to room with Russell, because he snored so badly. They decided it wasn't fair to make one of them stay with him the whole time, so they voted to take turns.

The first guy slept with Russell and comes to breakfast the next morning with his hair a mess and his eyes all blood shot. They said, "Man, what happened to you?" He said, "Russell snored so loudly, I just sat up and watched him all night."

The next night it was a different guy's turn. In the morning, same thing-hair all standing up, eyes all bloodshot. They said, "Man, what happened to you? You look awful!" He said, "Man, that Russell shakes the roof with his snoring. I watched him all night."

The third night was Fred's turn. Fred was a tanned, older cowboy; a man's man. The next morning he came to breakfast bright-eyed and bushy-tailed. "Good morning!" he said. They couldn't believe it. They said, "Man, what happened?"

He said, "Well, we got ready for bed. I went and tucked Russell into bed, patted him on the butt, and kissed him good night. Russell sat up and watched me all night!"

STATEWIDE DEER TAG

STATEWIDE ANTELOPE TAG

The Mike Johnson Youth Hunting Project will sponsor the Get Outside Colorado event again on June 2nd at Memorial Park in Colorado Springs. As most of you know, Mike Johnson was a guide at Rocky Mountain Roosters for many years and he died suddenly after a successful hip replacement surgery. RMR and his family started this as a way to get youth involved in hunting. Amy Johnson, Mike's widow, is still guiding at the club and says that we will have to bury her to get rid of her and her dogs at the club! We poke fun at this, but we all miss Mike and this event honors his memory and is something that we hope you will attend and support. Watch your RMR E-News for details on the event.

OH YEAH....we will be drawing the winners of the raffles that Sportsmen for Community and the Colorado Chapter of SCI are holding on that special day.

You could win one or both of these licenses AND a 6.5 Creedmore rifle and a pair of Leica Rangfinding Binos....

SUMMER HOURS AT RMR

During the summer at Rocky Mountain Roosters we are open 5 days a week. Our summer hours allow our staff to spend time with their families and actually get to church on Sunday! We are closed on Sunday and Monday from April 8- the middle of September.

If you want to shoot on any of the ranges or are out for a hike or are running your dogs, plan to do so Tuesday thru Saturday.

We will be holding pistol classes this summer, but we don't know when they will take place, yet. We have a busy April and we have farming to do to get ready for the 2018-2019 hunting season! The fun never stops at RMR!!
