RMR E- July 15, 2015

Hello RMR Faithful!

RMR manager Bill Lieb had a heart attack late Tuesday afternoon at Rocky Mountain Roosters. Paul Warnecke took him to the hospital (Bill is to damn stubborn and almost made a fatal mistake by not calling 911 when he felt the classic warning signs of a heart attack and didn't pay attention to them)

Bill had quadruple bypass just after midnight this morning, and is in CICU at Penrose Main Hospital. He is still sedated and they will keep him that way until tomorrow, from what we are being told.

This could be a warning sign for all of us to pay attention to our bodies and to get regular check-ups. He is lucky (not out of the woods yet) and it could have been fatal.

Please keep Bill and Kim in your prayers. Do me another favor...tell those around you that you love them and don't have regrets. I will keep you in the loop in regards to Bill's progress.

NOTE: We are in the process of building the two new Pyramids, so the clay range is not available at the moment. I will let you know when it is back up and running as well.

We still have some room in the NIGHT SHOOT this Saturday at RMR. See info below.

Cost is still only $90. Email Pistol@rmroosters.com to register or for more information.

DID YOU KNOW THAT 85% OF SELF PROTECTION ENCOUNTERS WITH A HANDGUN OCCUR IN THE DARK???

We will be holding our first NIGHT SHOOT on JULY 18. Cost is $50 and includes a refresher and BBQ dinner. You will need 50 rounds and a flashlight with a rear on-off switch. This class gives you an opportunity to shoot in the dark and how to use a flashlight while using a firearm. You can get more information about this class by emailing us as well. Class size is limited--don't wait to sign up! Anyone 14 and older can take this class.

HOW TO COOK THE PERFECT STEAK

Do you have a favorite way to grill a steak or cook one in a pan?? Let us know and we will publish it in the RMR E-News

TWO FOR THE ROAD

Over breakfast one morning, a woman said to her husband, "I bet you don't know what day this is."

"Of course I do," he indignantly answered, going out the door on his way to the office.

At 10 a.m., the doorbell rang, and when the woman opened the door, she was handed a box containing a dozen long-stemmed red roses.

At 1 p.m., a foil-wrapped, two pound box of her favorite chocolates arrived.

Later, a boutique delivered a designer dress.

The woman couldn't wait for her husband to come home. "First the flowers, then the candy, and then the dress!" she exclaimed.

"I've never had a more wonderful Groundhog Day in my whole life!"

So there's this man with a parrot. And his parrot swears like a sailor, I mean he's a pistol. He can swear for five minutes straight without repeating himself.

The trouble is that the guy who owns the parrot is a quiet, conservative type, and this bird's foul mouth is driving him crazy.

One day, it gets to be too much, so the guy grabs the bird by the throat, shakes him really hard, and yells, "QUIT IT!"

But this just makes the bird mad and he swears more than ever. Then the guy gets mad and says, "That's it. I'll get you." and locks the bird in a kitchen cabinet.

This really aggravates the bird and he claws and scratches, and when the guy finally lets him out, the bird cuts loose with a stream of invective that would make a veteran sailor blush.

At that point, the guy is so mad that he throws the bird into the freezer. For the first few seconds, there is a terrible din. The bird kicks and claws and thrashes. Then it suddenly goes very quiet.

At first the guy just waits, but then he starts to think that the bird may be hurt. After a couple of minutes of silence, he's so worried that he opens up the freezer door.

The bird calmly climbs onto the man's outstretched arm and says, "Awfully sorry about the trouble I gave you. I'll do my best to improve my vocabulary from now on."

The man is astounded. He can't understand the transformation that has come over the parrot. Then the parrot says, "By the way, what did the chicken do?"
