RMR E-News November 12, 2015

Hello RMR Faithful!

Good Thursday Morning! Great news on the home front! Young Quincy Hansen was able to leave the hospital later yesterday afternoon. He is home now after multiple surgeries to take fluid off of his lungs and more than a week on a ventilator. Jim and Teresa say that he has another 6-0 weeks or rehab at home before he is anywhere back to normal, but they told me last night how much they appreciate the prayers and calls and visits from all of the RMR friends and Family! God is Good!

What great news to start our Thursday!

Lord, if I'm ever ungrateful, forgive me.

This display hangs in The National Veterans Art Museum in Chicago.

It contains the dog tags of every U.S.
Serviceman and woman killed in Vietnam. I never knew this existed.

Isn't it crazy what makes the news? There are hundreds of veterans committing suicide every day and go without services, but the media wants to talk about a coffee cup. Make your own! Focus on what is important...like your family and friends and hunting dogs! Come see us.
